Manuscripts of antient Families.

- 1 THE Arms, Titles, Marriages, Issue, &c. of the Nobility of England, under the several Reigns from William the Conqueror, down to the latter End of Q. Elizabeth; the Arms all blazon'd in their proper Colours, 2l 2s
- 2 Arbor Honoris; containing the Arms, Crests, &c. at large, of the most noble Dukes, Marquesses and Earls, Viscounts and Barons, now flourishing in this Kingdom; with Genealogical Tables of their Descents, Marriages and Issue; also the particular Times of their several Creations, or the Erection of their Titles and their Deaths, whether naturally by the Hand of Justice or any other Means; illustrated with several historical Annotations, and many other Particulars not unworthy of Observation; with all the Arms drawn and painted, or blazon'd in their proper Colours, by Hugh Philipps, in the Year 1681; there is a Table prefixed to this Volume of the Names and Titles of the noble Families, whose Pedigrees and Arms are thus elaborately set forth by that Author, 6l 6s
- 3 A Volume containing threescore and fifteen large Genealogical Tables of the Royal and Noble Families of Spain, with those of many other Kingdoms and States in Europe, as far as they have been engrafted with them; beginning with that of the Condes de Lemos, which is deduced from Adam and Eve, who are here delineated with a Pen, or represented in Figures, at the Root of the Pedigree, with the Creator raising her out of his Side. This Table, consisting of several Sheets, is above six Feet long; and the Volume ends with Senores de Villa Vaguerin, Castillas. The 51st Table contains the Pedigree of the Kings of England, as they and their Nobles were united with Spain, from the Reign of K. Richard I. to K. James I. There is quoted at the Bottom, as on every Table there likewise is, (which will explain the Latin Sentence written on the Inside of the Cover) the Author's Voucher or Authority, who for this is, Geronymo Henninges, en su Theatro Genealogico; it is dedicated by the Author, Hieronymo de Otheo, from Palermo, the last of December 1616, to the illustrious, &c. Don Francisco de Castro, Conde de Castro, Duque de Taurisano, Commendador de Hornachos, de la Orden de Santiago, Virrey y Capitan General per su Magd. eneste Reyne de Sicilia; whose Arms are delineated at large with a Pen on the first Page of the Book, and blazon'd in Gold in Colours on the Cover, which is of red Morocco Leather, richly adorned and gilt all over; there is also prefixed a large Preface, distinguishing and explaining the said Pedigrees, and a Table of their Names, Titles, &c. 5l 5s
- 4 A Book conaining the Arms, Portraits, curiously drawn with Indian Ink in Miniature, Pedigrees, Matches, Issue, Deaths, Burials, &c. with large historical Illustrations of the antient and numerous Family of the Segars, more especially of Sir William Segar, Garter King of Arms, in the Reigns of King James and King Charles I. with Transcripts of his Grants of Arms, Patents to him, and others of his Descendants; also of the Evidences and Conveyances of the Estate in the said Family, &c. This Collection was compiled, transcribed and painted by the Hand of Simon Segar, Esq; Grandson of the said King of Arms, in the 26th Year of K. Charles II. Anno Dom. 1674, 10l 10s

- 5 A large Volume of Pedigrees of the antient and noble Families of England, with many historical Observations, and some of the Arms blazon'd in their proper Colours. There is written in the Beginning of this Book by the late John Anstis, Esq; Garter, these Words — "These Pedigrees are in the Hand-writing of Sir Thomas Wriothesley, Garter." In the Reign of K. Henry VIII. 4l 4s
- 6 The Arms, Supporters and Motto's, Names and Titles of the Nobility of England and Ireland, in the Reigns of King Charles and King James II. all painted at large in their proper Colours, two on a Leaf, throughout the Book, 3l 3s
- 7 The Differences of Arms and Bearings in the same Families, set forth in many Examples among our antient Nobility, very neatly blazon'd; to which is prefixed, a Prefatory Discourse in Latin, upon the Origin, Antiquity and Difference, or Distinctions requisite in Arms, by Robert Glover, Somerset Herald in the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, 3l 3s
- 8 A fair and antient Transcript of many curious Antiquities relating chiefly to the Office and Officers of Arms, &c. among which one of the earliest Pieces is — The Letter of the Barons of England in the Parliament at Lincoln, held by K. Edward I. Anno 1300, to Pope Boniface, denying his Right to Scotland, — Thomas of Lancaster, Constable of England, his Orders after what Manner the Heralds should attend the King, dated from Caen in Normandy, An. 1417. — List of the first Founders of the Garter, with their Arms and Successors — Æneas Silius, afterwards Pope Pius, his Letter to John Hinderback concerning Heralds, in Latin, from Vienna, A. 1451, — Bartoldus de Insignis & Armis. — L'Office des Roy Herauldes & Poursuivant d'Armes. — The Ordonances, Statutes and Rules of Justes, enacted at Windsor, May 29, in the sixth Year of K. Edward IV. by John Earl of Worcester, Constable of England; at the speciall Command of our said sovereign Lord to be observ'd, &c. — Ordonances of Richard Duke of Gloucester, High Constable of England, with the High Marshall, for reforming the Offices of Arms. — Grants of Priviledge by several Kings of England to the Heralds, as Richard III. Edward VI. Philip and Mary, King James I, &c. — The Orders that were settled for the Heralds Attendance on the King 3 Henry VII. — Margaret Countess of Richmond's Orders for the Court Mourning 18 Henry VII. — A List of the Nobility, Officers, &c. that attended K. Henry VIII. and his Q. upon the grand Interview with the French King, 1520, — Examples proving that the Rule of Seniority has not always taken Place among the Officers of Arms. — The Chapter at Garter's House, in which the Treasurer and Register of Arms were appointed. — The Duke of Norfolk's first Decree upon the long Debate whose Right it was, of Garter Clarencieux or Norroys, to bury bury the Nobility, — Agreements made at a Chapter of the Officers holden at Derby Place, Octob. 28, 1564. — Another Feb. 20, 1564, being the Duke's second Decree, — Another Chapter the last of October 1565, being the Duke's 3d Orders. — Other Orders of the E. Marshall, to be observed by the Officers of Arms, 1568. His Orders what should be paid by all Ranks and Degrees for the Grant of new Arms. — Provision for the Creation of several Officers of Arms. — The Fees and Largeſſes claimed by them. — Causes why Sir William Dethick was deposed from his Office, 1603. — K. James his Prohibition to Glaziers, Goldsmiths, Cutters, Gravers, Carvers, &c. to display any Arms without Allowance of the Heralds Office, A. 1618. — The E. Marshall's Letter to the Stationers, prohibiting their printing Matters of Heraldry, without his Approbation, March 6, 1619. — His Letter to the said Company for suppressing Ralph Brook, York Herald's erroneous Book of Arms, from Arundel House, May 25, 1622, &c. — In the Frontispiece of this Collection, is the Effigies of an Herald, drawn at length, with a Pen, and this Definition at Top, 'Heraldi sunt Nuntii Nobilitatis, Arbitri Æquitatis, Expositores Veritatis, Legati Principum, & Scriptores Actuum Militarium & Bellorum, &c.' And on the Inside of the Cover it is attested, by the late Mr. Anstis, Garter, that 'most Part of this Book is the Hand-writing of Thomas Lant, who was Portcullis Pursuivant the 31st, and Windsor Herald the 43d of Eliz.' And other Parts of the Book were written by Augustine Vincent the Herald, 5l 5s

- 9 A good Collection of the Arms, Descents, Marriages, Issue and Deaths of the Nobility of England, from the Time of William the Conqueror to the Beginning of James I. with Tables, Indexes, &c. N. B. This is said to have been a Book of Mr. Camden's, and that he had a Hand in some Part of it, 3l 3s
- 10 An old Collection of Pedigrees, many of the Families in Cheshire, &c. written in the Reign of K. James the 1st, lying in a loose Parchment Cover, 1l 1s
- 11 The Visitation of the County of Stafford, made and taken by Richard St. George, Esq; alias Norroy King at Arms, Anno Dom. 1614, with the Arms of the Families fairly delineated with a Pen, 2l 2s
- 12 The Nobility of England in the several Reigns from William the Conqueror to the End of Queen Elizabeth, with their Arms delineated in the Margins, Tables, Index, &c. 2l 2s
- 13 The Primogeniture of the Monarchs of England from as high as Bedwy, one of the Sons of Noah, thro' all the Saxon Kings and Queens, and the Danes, for one half of the Book; the rest from William the Conqueror down to K. Edward III. all fairly written, with their Arms all blazon in proper Colours, from the earliest to the latest of them. 'Tis in an Octavo size, and modern Binding; is somewhat imperfect, but carries our modern Blazonry up to Times of greater Antiquity than is usually seen, 2l 2s

- N. B. This is a very beautiful Edition of the Works of Aristotle in Latin, with the Commentary of Averroes; it is observable, that all these Volumes were published the same Year, but not at once, the Date of each being set down with great Exactness; as for Instance, The Book Perihermenias, published the 5th of Feb. de Cœlo & Monte, June the 6th, de Anima, in September, de Physico Auditu, Octob. 6th. the Metaphysics, Nov. 8th, &c. The Titles to each of the Volumes are illuminated in a grand Manner, and the Vellum on which 'tis printed is remarkably clear and fine, to which we may add, the Largeness of the Margin, which is at least 3 Inches broad.
